

NSO Communications Ad Hoc Committee Vacancies

We have several vacancies on the newly created NSO Ad Hoc Communications Committee. This committee is charged with developing and implementing a long term communications strategy for NSO to communicate internally with our members as well as externally with the general public through our website, social media platforms, and newsletters.

We're looking for NSO members with experience/background in the following areas:

- Engaging union members through media outreach and social media content creation.
- Brainstorming content ideas in line with a strategic communications strategy.
- Writing skills with an attention to detail as well as an understanding of internal and external audiences.

Applicants must also be willing and able to serve NSO by:

- Committing to attend 1-2 Committee meetings/per year (2-day meetings).
- Contribute to "off-line" work outside of official committee meetings throughout the year.
- Work with Local Affiliates and other NSO Committees to obtain information needed to highlight the work NSO members are doing across the country.
- The willingness to learn the technical skills needed to create user-friendly, shareable content that is relevant to our members and the broader labor movement.
- Work with union brothers and sisters from across the country for the best interests of our members.

If you are interested in serving on this NSO Committee, please contact Brad Darjean, NSO President, at president@nationalstaff.org. Please provide your name, Local Affiliate, and a brief statement of interest by 5:00 p.m. on July 16, 2021.
